LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCES (specific to a competitive event)
Throughout my high school career, I ran a freelance web design business, working with clients to design, build and execute a professional looking, functioning website. I had to set schedules for myself and meet strict deadlines. Furthermore, I had to listen and respond to the clients feedback and comments, and work with a team if it was a multi-person project.

During this specific project I was the only one on the team and worked to make the best product I could by turning to others for feedback and critisim

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCES (connected to one or more of these categories: Leadership Roles; Community Service/Volunteer Experiences; Leadership Development/Training; College/Career Planning)

Over the past four years I have served as our chapter TSA president and treasurer, science club president, book club president, and a class officer. I have attended multiple leadership training camps, both in and out of TSA. I volunteer as a boy scout, for the National Honor Society, and for Interact. I have worked on teams to research the effect of space weather on muon flux, a cure for type 1 diabetes, and transcranial direct current stimulation.
